F&N PRODUCTS UNAFFECTED BY FONTERRA WPC80 QUALITY ISSUE

We refer to Fonterra's announcements on the quality issue involving three batches of whey protein concentrate (WPC80). Fraser and Neave, Limited assures consumers that the F&N Group does not use Fonterra WPC80 as an ingredient in our food and beverage products. Therefore, all our food and beverage products are not affected and are safe for consumption.

Food safety and quality is a top priority for the F&N Group. Our food and beverage products are made from ingredients that are approved for use by relevant regulatory authorities in the markets where such products are sold.

The F&N Group's manufacturing plants in Singapore, Malaysia and Thailand are certified with ISO 22000 / HACCP food safety management systems and meet the highest international standards in food safety and product quality.
