G Voting

Every question submitted to a Meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands and in the case of equality of votes the chairman of such Meeting shall hold on a show of hands and on a poll have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes (if any) which he may be entitled to as a Noteholder or as a holder of a Voting Certificate or as a proxy.

At a Meeting unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairman of such Meeting, F&NT, F&N, the Trustee or any person present holding a Voting Certificate or being, or representing, a proxy and being, in aggregate, the holders of not less than one-twentieth of the nominal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series then outstanding, a declaration by the chairman of such Meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

If at such Meeting a poll is so demanded it shall be taken in such manner and subject as provided in the Third Schedule of the Trust Deed either at once or after an adjournment as the chairman of such Meeting directs and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of such Meeting at which the poll was demanded as at the date of the taking of the poll. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of such Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the motion on which the poll has been demanded.

On a show of hands every person who is present in person and produces a Voting Certificate or is a proxy shall have one vote. On a poll every person who is so present shall have one vote in respect of each S$250,000 in nominal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series then outstanding, a declaration by the chairman of such Meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

Every question submitted to a Meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands and in the case of equality of votes the chairman of such Meeting shall hold on a show of hands and on a poll have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes (if any) which he may be entitled to as a Noteholder or as a holder of a Voting Certificate or as a proxy.

H Extraordinary Resolution

The Extraordinary Resolution proposed at the relevant Meeting would need to be passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast on a poll. The resolution on a show of hands or a poll is only validly passed by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast on such poll. The Extraordinary Resolution passed at such Meeting duly convened shall be binding upon all the Noteholders of the relevant Series whether present or absent at such Meeting and whether or not they are registered as holders of the relevant Series then outstanding and the passing of any such resolution shall be conclusive evidence that the circumstances justify the passing thereof.

I Notice of Results

Notice of the result of the voting on the Extraordinary Resolution at the relevant Meeting shall be published in accordance with Condition 13 of the Notes by F&NT within 14 days of such result being known, provided that the non-publication of such notice shall not invalidate such result.

J Tax Note

The statements below are general in nature and are based on certain aspects of current tax laws in Singapore and administrative guidelines issued by the Ministry of Finance of Singapore ("MAS") in force as at the date of the Consent Solicitation Statement and are subject to any changes in such laws or administrative guidelines, or the interpretation of those laws or guidelines, occurring after the date of the Consent Solicitation Statement. Noteholders should consult their own tax advisers in relation to the tax implications of the Consent Solicitation Statement or any other statements or any other statements in the Consent Solicitation Statement are intended or are to be regarded as advice on the tax position of any holder of the Notes or on any tax implications arising from the Consent Solicitation. The statements made herein do not purport to be a comprehensive or exhaustive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase or subscribe for the Notes and do not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which (such as dealers in securities or financial institutions in Singapore which have granted the relevant Financial Sector Incentive(s)) may be subject to special rules or tax breaks. Holders of the Notes are advised to consult their own tax advisers in Singapore or other tax consequences of their participation in the Consent Solicitation, including, in particular, the effect of any foreign, state or local tax laws to which they are subject. It is emphasized that none of F&NT, F&N, the Solicitation Agent and any other persons involved in the Consent Solicitation accepts responsibility for any tax effects or liabilities resulting from the Consent Solicitation.

K Interest and Other Payments

Subject to the following paragraphs, under Section 12(6) of the Income Tax Act, Chapter 134 of Singapore ("ITA"), the following payments are deemed to be derived from Singapore:

- (a) any interest, commission, fee or any other payment in connection with any loan or indebtedness or with any arrangement, management, guarantee, or service related to any loan or indebtedness which is (i) borne, directly or indirectly, by a person resident in Singapore or a permanent establishment in Singapore or (ii) borne by a person or business carried out outside Singapore or a permanent establishment outside Singapore or (iii) deductible against any income accruing in or derived from Singapore; or
- (b) any income derived from loans where the funds provided by such loans are brought into or used in Singapore.

Such payments, where made to a person not known to the paying party to be a resident in Singapore for tax purposes, are generally subject to withholding tax in Singapore. The rate at which tax is to be withheld for such payments (other than those subject to the 15 per cent. final withholding tax described below) to non-resident persons (other than non-resident individuals) is currently 17 per cent. The applicable rate for non-resident individuals is currently 20 per cent. However, if the payment is derived by a person not resident in Singapore otherwise than from any trade, business, profession or vocation carried on or exercised by such person in Singapore and is not effectively connected with any permanent establishment in Singapore, the applicable rate for such payments is the applicable rate of 15 per cent. The rate of 15 per cent. may be reduced by applicable tax treaties.

However, certain Singapore-sourced investment income derived by individuals from financial instruments is exempt from tax, including:

- (i) interest from debt securities derived on or after 1 January 2004;
- (ii) discount income (not including discount income arising from secondary trading) from debt securities derived on or after 17 February 2006; and
- (iii) payment of the redemption premium and break cost from debt securities derived on or after 15 February 2007, except where such income is derived through a partnership in Singapore or is derived from the carrying on of a trade, business or profession.

In addition, on the basis that each of the Series 009 Notes and Series 010 Notes are qualifying debt securities ("QDS") for the purposes of the ITA and the relevant conditions are met:

- (a) interest, discount income (not including discount income arising from secondary trading), prepayment fee, redemption premium and break cost from the Notes derived by a holder who is not resident in Singapore and who (a) does not have any permanent establishment in Singapore or (b) carries on any operation in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore but the funds used by that person to acquire the Notes are not obtained from such person's operation through a permanent establishment in Singapore, are exempt from Singapore tax;
- (b) interest, discount income (not including discount income arising from secondary trading), prepayment fee, redemption premium and break cost from the Notes derived by any company or body of persons (as defined in the ITA) in Singapore is subject to income tax at 10.00 per cent. (less a concessionary rate of 8.00 per cent. for holders of the relevant Financial Sector Incentive(s)) who may be taxed at different rates; and

The term "related party", in relation to a person, means any other person who, directly or indirectly, controls that person, or is controlled, directly or indirectly, by that person, or where he and that other person, directly or indirectly, are under the control of a common person.

The terms "prepayment fee", "redemption premium" and "break cost" are defined in the ITA as follows:

- (a) "prepayment fee", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any fee payable by the issuer of the securities on the early redemption of the securities, the amount of which is determined by the terms of the issuance of the securities;
- (b) "redemption premium", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any premium payable by the issuer of the securities on the redemption of the securities upon their maturity; and
- (c) "break cost", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any fee payable by the issuer of the securities on the early redemption of the securities, the amount of which is determined by any loss or liability incurred by the holder of the securities in connection with such redemption.

References to "prepayment fee", "redemption premium" and "break cost" in this Singapore tax disclosure have the same meaning as defined in the ITA.

Where interest, discount income, prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost is derived from any of the Series 009 Notes or Series 010 Notes (as the case may be) by any person who is not resident in Singapore and who carries on any operations in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore, the tax exemption available for qualifying debt securities (subject to certain conditions) under the ITA shall not apply if such person equities such Notes using the funds and profits of such person's operations through a permanent establishment in Singapore. Any person whose interest, discount income, prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost derived from the Series 009 Notes or Series 010 Notes (as the case may be) is not exempt from tax (including for the reasons described above) shall include such income in a return of income made under the ITA.

As set out in Condition 7 of the Notes, all payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and Coupons (as defined in the Trust Deed) by F&NT will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Singapore or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, F&NT will pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holder of the Notes or Coupons after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would otherwise have been receivable in respect of the Notes or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note or Coupon presented for payment:

- (a) by or on behalf of a holder who is liable for such taxes or duties in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with Singapore other than the mere holding of such Note or Coupon or the receipt of any sums due in respect of such Note or Coupon (including, without limitation, the holder being a resident of, or a permanent establishment in, Singapore); or
- (b) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date (as defined in the Conditions) except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day assuming that day to have been a Payment Day (as defined in the Conditions).

An advance tax ruling has been sought from the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore ("IRAS") to confirm that (a) the Early Acceptance Fee and Consent Fee do not fall under Section 16(8) of the ITA, and accordingly the Early Acceptance Fee and Consent Fee payable by F&NT to non-resident Noteholders under this Consent Solicitation are not subject to any Singapore withholding tax; and (b) the prepayment fee payable to non-resident Noteholders (upon exercise of the Call Option) would not be subject to withholding tax under the QDS Scheme and that Noteholders would be eligible for the tax exemptions and concessions for such prepayment fee under the QDS Scheme. There is no guarantee that a favourable ruling will be obtained from the IRAS.

To the extent that the payments to non-resident Noteholders of the prepayment fee (upon the exercise of the Call Option), the Early Acceptance Fee or (as the case may be) the Consent Fee may be subject to Singapore withholding tax, F&NT has agreed (subject to and in accordance with Condition 7 of the Notes) to pay such additional amounts as will result in the receipt by such Noteholders of such amount of the prepayment fee, the Early Acceptance Fee or (as the case may be) the Consent Fee as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required in respect of such payment.

For the purpose of enabling F&NT to determine the amount of such withholding tax payable to the IRAS, the holders and/or the beneficial owners of Notes are requested to complete the relevant Tax Residency Declaration Form (the form of which may be found in the section entitled "Form of Tax Residency Declaration Forms" in the Consent Solicitation Statement) and return the duly completed Tax Residency Declaration Form to the Issuing and Paying Agent on or prior to the Expiration Time or, if after the Expiration Time, to F&NT at the address set forth on the back cover of the Consent Solicitation Statement by 31 December 2013.

J2 Capital Gains

Singapore does not impose tax on capital gains. However, there are no specific laws or regulations which deal with the characterisation of capital gains, and hence, any gains arising from the participation in the Consent Solicitation or disposal of the Notes may be construed to be of an income nature and subject to income tax, especially if they arise from activities which the IRAS would regard as the carrying on of a trade or business in Singapore.

In addition, holders of the Notes who apply or are required to apply Singapore Financial Reporting Standard 39 ("FRS 39"), may for Singapore income tax purposes, be required to recognise gains or losses (not being gains or losses in the nature of capital) on the Notes or participation in the Consent Solicitation in accordance with FRS 39. Please see the section below on "Adoption of FRS 39 Treatment for Singapore Income Tax Purpose".

J3 Adoption of FRS 39 Treatment for Singapore Income Tax Purposes

The IRAS has issued a circular entitled "Income Tax Implications Arising from the Adoption of FRS 39 – Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" (the "FRS 39 Circular"). The ITA has since been amended to give effect to the FRS 39 Circular.

The FRS 39 Circular generally applies, subject to certain "opt-out" provisions, to taxpayers who are required to comply with FRS 39 for financial reporting purposes.

Holders of the Notes who may be subject to the tax treatment under the FRS 39 Circular should consult their own accounting and tax advisers regarding the Singapore income tax consequences of their participation in the Consent Solicitation.

J4 Estate Duty

Singapore estate duty has been abolished with respect to all deaths occurring on or after 15 February 2008.

K Tax Residency Declaration Forms

For the purpose of enabling F&NT to determine the amount of withholding tax (if any) payable to the IRAS in respect of amounts payable under the Consent Solicitation and the Notes, the holders and/or the beneficial owners of Notes are requested to complete the relevant Tax Residency Declaration Form (the form of which may be found in the section entitled "Form of Tax Residency Declaration Forms" in the Consent Solicitation Statement) and return the duly completed Tax Residency Declaration Form to the Issuing and Paying Agent on or prior to the Expiration Time or, if after the Expiration Time, to F&NT at the address set forth on the back cover of the Consent Solicitation Statement by 31 December 2013.

The term "related party", in relation to a person, means any other person who, directly or indirectly, controls that person, or is controlled, directly or indirectly, by that person, or where he and that other person, directly or indirectly, are under the control of a common person.

The terms "prepayment fee", "redemption premium" and "break cost" are defined in the ITA as follows:

- (a) "prepayment fee", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any fee payable by the issuer of the securities on the early redemption of the securities, the amount of which is determined by the terms of the issuance of the securities;
- (b) "redemption premium", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any premium payable by the issuer of the securities on the redemption of the securities upon their maturity; and
- (c) "break cost", in relation to debt securities and qualifying debt securities, means any fee payable by the issuer of the securities on the early redemption of the securities, the amount of which is determined by any loss or liability incurred by the holder of the securities in connection with such redemption.

References to "prepayment fee", "redemption premium" and "break cost" in this Singapore tax disclosure have the same meaning as defined in the ITA.

Where interest, discount income, prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost is derived from any of the Series 008 Notes or Series 010 Notes (as the case may be) by any person who is not resident in Singapore and who carries on any operations in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore, the tax exemption available for qualifying debt securities (subject to certain conditions) under the ITA shall not apply if such person acquires such Notes using the funds and profits of such person's operations through a permanent establishment in Singapore. Any person whose interest, discount income, prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost derived from the Series 008 Notes or Series 010 Notes (as the case may be) is not exempt from tax (including for the reasons described above) shall include such income in a return of income made under the ITA.

As set out in Condition 7 of the Notes, all payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and Coupons (as defined in the Trust Deed) by F&NT will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Singapore or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, F&NT will pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holder of the Notes or Coupons after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would otherwise have been receivable in respect of the Notes or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note or Coupon presented for payment:

- (a) by or on behalf of a holder who is liable for such taxes or duties in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with Singapore other than the mere holding of such Note or Coupon or the receipt of any sums due in respect of such Note or Coupon (including, without limitation, the holder being a resident of, or a permanent establishment in, Singapore); or
- (b) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date (as defined in the Conditions) except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day assuming that day to have been a Payment Day (as defined in the Conditions).

An advance tax ruling has been sought from the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore ("IRAS") to confirm that (a) the Early Acceptance Fee and Consent Fee do not fall under Section 12B of the ITA, and accordingly the Early Acceptance Fee and Consent Fee payable by F&NT to non-resident Noteholders under this Consent Solicitation are not subject to any Singapore withholding tax; and (b) the prepayment fee payable to non-resident Noteholders (upon exercise of the Call Option) would not be subject to withholding tax under the ODS Scheme and that Noteholders would be eligible for the tax exemptions and concessions for such prepayment fee under the ODS Scheme. There is no guarantee that a favourable ruling will be obtained from the IRAS.

To the extent that the payments to non-resident Noteholders of the prepayment fee (upon the exercise of the Call Option), the Early Acceptance Fee or (as the case may be) the Consent Fee may be subject to Singapore withholding tax, F&NT has agreed (subject to and in accordance with Condition 7 of the Notes) to pay such additional amounts as will result in the receipt by such Noteholders of such amount of the prepayment fee, the Early Acceptance Fee or (as the case may be) the Consent Fee as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required in respect of such payment.

For the purpose of enabling F&NT to determine the amount of such withholding tax payable to the IRAS, the holders and/or the beneficial owners of Notes are requested to complete the relevant Tax Residency Declaration Form (the form of which may be found in the section entitled "Form of Tax Residency Declaration Form" in the Consent Solicitation Statement) and return the duly completed Tax Residency Declaration Form to the Issuing and Paying Agent on or prior to the Expiration Time or, if after the Expiration Time, to F&NT at the address set forth on the back cover of the Consent Solicitation Statement by 31 December 2013.

J2 Capital Gains

Singapore does not impose tax on capital gains. However, there are no specific laws or regulations which deal with the characterisation of capital gains, and hence, any gains arising from the participation in the Consent Solicitation or disposal of the Notes may be construed to be of an income nature and subject to income tax, especially if they arise from activities which the IRAS would regard as the carrying on of a trade or business in Singapore.

In addition, holders of the Notes who apply or are required to apply Singapore Financial Reporting Standard 39 ("FRS 39"), may for Singapore income tax purposes, be required to recognise gains or losses (not being gains or losses in the nature of capital) on the Notes or participation in the Consent Solicitation in accordance with FRS 39. Please see the section below on "Adoption of FRS 39 Treatment for Singapore Income Tax Purposes".

J3 Adoption of FRS 39 Treatment for Singapore Income Tax Purposes

The IRAS has issued a circular entitled "Income Tax Implications Arising from the Adoption of FRS 39 – Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" (the "FRS 39 Circular"). The ITA has since been amended to give effect to the FRS 39 Circular.

The FRS 39 Circular generally applies, subject to certain "opt-out" provisions, to taxpayers who are required to comply with FRS 39 for financial reporting purposes.

Holders of the Notes who may be subject to the tax treatment under the FRS 39 Circular should consult their own accounting and tax advisers regarding the Singapore income tax consequences of their participation in the Consent Solicitation.

J4 Estate Duty

Singapore estate duty has been abolished with respect to all deaths occurring on or after 15 February 2008.

K Tax Residency Declaration Forms

For the purpose of enabling F&NT to determine the amount of withholding tax (if any) payable to the IRAS in respect of amounts payable under the Consent Solicitation and the Notes, the holders and/or the beneficial owners of Notes are requested to complete the relevant Tax Residency Declaration Form (the form of which may be found in the section entitled "Form of Tax Residency Declaration Form" in the Consent Solicitation Statement) and return the duly completed Tax Residency Declaration Form to the Issuing and Paying Agent on or prior to the Expiration Time or, if after the Expiration Time, to F&NT at the address set forth on the back cover of the Consent Solicitation Statement by 31 December 2013.
